

Warren Davis...1902-1995

Warren J. Davis Sr., 92, of Phoenix, Ariz., formerly of Littleton, died at Phoenix General Hospital on Friday, Jan. 13, 1995.

Born in Lexington April 27, 1902, he was the son of the late Warren and Katherine (Weatherby) Davis. He was the husband of the late Florence (Phalon) Davis, who died in 1977, and the late Anastacia (Griffin) (Alward) Davis who died in 1985.

He spent his early life in Lexington and was a graduate of Lexington High School.

Mr. Davis worked on the family farm until he was 35. He then worked for Nashoba Oil Company as a truck driver for 30 years, and at Nabnasset Country Club for 10 years.

He made his home in Littleton from 1945 until 1991 when he moved to Phoenix. He was a member of the Chelmsford Elks, Ayer Sportsman Club and the Nabnasset Country Club. Mr. Davis was also an active member of St. Anne's Church in Littleton.

His survivors include three sons and daughters-in-law, Kevin P. and Kathryn Davis of Littleton, Gayland M. and Diana Davis of Phoenix, and Warren J. and Patricia Davis Jr. of Hayes, Va.; 12 grandchildren and 19 great grandchildren.
