Littleton

Davis, of Littleton, Russell G. Davis, age 74, A Dedicated husband, brother and grandfather passed away April 5, 2008 after a memorable night dance with his beloved wife Ann Davis. Along with Ann, his five daughters , Jean S. Cheryl Galvin, Julie Schieni Laura Gosselin and Colleen Chapdelaine, 10 grandchildren, devoted brothers and sisters Aldred and Shirley Davis, Mary Ruth Davis. Thelma and David DeMars and Dorothy Nowak , and other family and friends remember him and the ways in which he touched their lives. Russ had a very accomplished life. Growing up with seven siblings in Concord, he graduated Cum Laude from Northeastern University with a Bachelor's degree in Science in Business Administration and worked more than ten dedicated years for Fidelity Investments. An avid Red Sox fan and model plane enthusiast, Russ was an all around energetic and endearing. He recently retired to pursue his true passion, family. He spent countless hours on sidelines , in audiences, and anywhere else he could cheer for his grandchildren. Russ valued weekend trips with “other half”, Ann which were often spent cross-country skiing, bicycling and recently snowshoeing. Whether it was talking over coffee, working together on a project, or quick catch up over the phone, all of our time spent with Russ will never be forgotten.
