Katherine Fortin

... of Littleton, formerly of Westford; 51

LITTLETON — Katherine (Dodd) Fortin, 51, of Tahattawan Road died yesterday, March 6, at her home after a struggle with cancer.

She was born in Brighton on April 24, 1947, a daughter of Stephen Jr. and Eileen (Howard) Dodd of Englewood, Fla. She was raised in Reading, graduating from Reading High School in 1964 and earning a B.A. in mathematics from Merrimack College in North Andover in 1969.

She worked for several computer companies and had taught at King Philip Regional High School. More recently, she was manager of technical support at Mercury Computer in Chelmsford, where she had worked for the past six years.

She had also lived in Wrentham, Westford and, for the past year, in Littleton.

Besides her parents, survivors include two daughters, Stephanie C. Fortin of Lowell and Rebecca A. Fortin, who attends the University of New Hampshire; a brother, Stephen H. Dodd III of North Andover; a sister, Ann and her husband Kevin Jones of Great Falls, Va.; a nephew and niece, Duncan and Shannon Jones; and many good friends.
