

Joseph H. Gosselin

... dies in Florida

LITTLETON — Joseph H. Gosselin of Littleton died Jan. 5 at Memorial Hospital in Hollywood, Fla. Born in Allston June 22, 1902, the son of the late Joseph H. and Annie (Cunnam) Gosselin, he retired 10 years ago, previous to which he had been a builder in Littleton. For the past 16 years, Hallandale, Fla. was his winter residence. He leaves his wife, Catherine (Cavanaugh) Gosselin; a son, Robert L. Gosselin, president of Gosselin Builders, Inc. of Groton; two daughters, Mrs. Edith E. Thomas of Lunenburg and Mrs. Doris R. Wetherbee of Littleton; a sister, Mrs. Della Finnegan of Dorchester, and 14 grandchildren.

Published in the Lowell Sun, Tuesday, January 6, 1970

Joseph H.
Gosselin
...dies in Florida

LITTLETON - Joseph H. Gosselin of Littleton died Jan 5 at Memorial Hospital in Hollywood,

Fla. Born in Allston June 22, 1902, the son of the late Joseph H. and Annie (Cunnam) Gosselin, he retired 10 years ago, previous to which he had been a builder in Littleton. For the past 16 years, Hallandale, Fla. was his winter residence. He leaves his wife, Catherine (Cavanaugh) Gosselin; a son, Robert L. Gosselin, president of Gosselin Builders, Inc. of Groton; two daughters, Mrs. Edith E. Thomas of Lunenburg and Mrs. Doris R. Wetherbee of Littleton; a sister, Mrs. Della Finnegan of Dorchester, and 14 grandchildren.