Obituary

June E. (Piper) Gormely, 83, of Northampton formerly of Concord died at Holyoke Soldiers Home in Holyoke on Thursday, September 9, 2004. She was the wife of the late Michael B. Gormely Jr. Born in Concord, December 26, 1920 she was the daughter of the late Frank and Florence (Gardiner) Piper. Educated in the Concord schools she graduated from Concord High School in 1938. A World War II Navy Veteran, Mrs. Gormely served as a nurse assisting with many sick and wounded soldiers. While in Concord, she worked as a bank teller for Harvard Trust Co and was a member of the Womens Axillary of the American Legion as well as a member of the West Concord Union Church.

She was an avid sewer, making clothing for many children in the neighborhood when her sons were growing up and also loved to cook and read.

She is survived by two sons, Michael B. Gormery III of Florence, MA and Richard A. Gormely of Shutesbury, MA., five grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren.

A public graveside service was held on Monday, September 13 at Westlawn Cemetery, Littleton with Rev. John F. Hudson officiating. Arrangements under the direction of MacRae-Tunncliffe Funeral & Cremation Service. www.concordfuneral.com Funeral Directors, Edmund H. Tunncliffe IV & Glenn D.
