

d: 10-12- '87

22 Oct. 87

Ralph Goddard

Ralph L. Goddard, 88, of 82 Foster St., died at St. Joseph's Hospital in Lowell on Oct. 12.

He was born in Somerville Sept. 5, 1899, son of the late Wm. and Grace (Bacon) Goddard and was the husband of the late M. L. Evelyn (Griffin) Goddard who died in 1966.

Mr. Goddard was educated in the Littleton School System and had made his home in Littleton for over 80 years. He worked as a farmer on the Whitcomb Farm and later as a textile worker at United Elastic in Littleton for over 50 years. His memberships include the Littleton Grange and The International Order of Odd Fellows.

Ralph is survived by a son, Ronald P. Goddard of Littleton; a daughter, M. Lucille Goddard of Lowell; and a brother, William L. Goddard of Bel Air, Maryland. He has 10 grandchildren: Gary L., and Christopher P. Alcorn; Mary Lee Cossette; Timothy D. Kevin P., Michael J., Ronald J., Patrick G., Maura E., and Martha E. Goddard; three great-grandchildren, Colleen N. Alcorn, Ashley E. and Jenna L. Cossette. Mr. Goddard was also the brother of the late Marjorie Moore and Doris Loomer.

A funeral service will be held at the Badger Funeral Home, Rt. 2A Littleton, Thursday at 2 p.m. Burial will be at Westlawn Cemetery. Funeral Director David W. Badger and Wm. A. Badger.